

Coming soon....to a planet near you:
Space School Musical

Wishin' you were on a space mission? Hannah is – her science fair project is due tomorrow but her model of the solar system isn't done. How will she finish in time? With a little help from her friends – the most talented troupe in the Milky Way!

The Planetary Posse and their moonwalking buds, the Asteroid Gang, a Meteor-Wrong, and a Stand-Up Comet lead Hannah on a trajectory through the solar system.
